Re: Jangam Mutt Inamti Survey No. 25 (12 acres 36 guntas) assessment Rs 7-8-0 belonging to the Chennasamudra.

1. Survey No. 25 of Chamnasamudra was an Inamti granted by His Highness the Maharaja on 2nd December 1868 to the ancestors of the Petitioner for purposes of Jangam Mutt subject to the payment of combined gutta rent of :- Rs 4-4-0 per year.

2. That ever since the grant the Petitioner ancestors have built a Mutt thereon and are allowing all Jangama Travellers there, besides besides feeding on two days annually in Sravanam and on Silver Thri.

3. The land is a dry one and is not very yielding.

4. The Petitioner has got 100 cocoa-nut trees planted at his cost in portion of the land several years ago and the said trees have now come to xxx yield.

5. That certain mischevious persons including the Patel, who are enimical to the Petitioner have given false reports against the Petitioner to the Authorities saying that Petitioner is not using the land for charitable purposes and that there is no swami for the Mutt, that the Mutt is used as residential - quarters etc.

6. The Petitioner has stoutly opposed all their false allegations and has let in oral evidence to show that people are fed on temporary occasions and that the Mutt is not used as a house.

7. The Petitioner bona-fide believes that he would be heard before final orders were passed.

8. That on 12th March 1931, the Peti-

Petitioner received an endorsement to the effect that Government have passed orders on 16th January 1931 ordering resumption of the land on the ground that land is not used for intended purposes. Hence this application for ~~recovery~~ review.

8. The Petitioner begs to file this review application in the following grounds:-

(i) The disputed land has been in undisturbed possession of the Petitioner and his ancestors for over 60 years.

(ii) The Petitioner has not been heard by Government when they passed orders in question.

(iii) The Petitioner and his predecessors have built a kutt thereon at considerable expenses and have 100 cocoanut trees at considerable expenses.

(iv) The Petitioner has not alienated the land as suggested by the Taluk Authorities.

(v) That even till to-day the Petitioner has been feeding Jangamas on Sivarathri and Sravana days and gives lodging to stray travellers.

(vi) that it is false that Petitioner has let the utta for hire.

(vii) that the petitioner is a poor man who has spent his all in building the utta and the growing coconut trees.

(viii) that even such raiser's full assessment is put on his land, under the Rules it cannot be resumed.

ix) that even if the Tenam is not yet enfranchised the Government may now enfranchise the land under the Tenam Rules by giving absolute rights over it to the petitioner. (Rule VIII of Tenam Rules & Para 275 of the Manual) ✓

10. The Petitioner begs to submit that if the sale takes place, the petitioner will be put to considerable loss and expenses and inconvenience.

11. The petitioner, therefore prays that an ex interim stay order may kindly be issued to stay further proceeding pending the result of the review application.

The

12. The petitioner has a son aged 25 years, who is competent to manage his Mudi. Even if the petitioner is not considered fit, his aforesaid son may be appointed in his place & vested Power be given to him: as held in Para 275 of the Revenue Manual.

12. The Petitioner humbly prays that the order for resumption of the land may be set aside and the land granted to the Petitioner as before.

13. The Petitioner has applied to Government to grant him copy of the order. The copy has not yet been received and as the land is brought to sale, the Petitioner had to file this petition without the copy. The Petitioner prays that copy may be taken by themselves and filed in the records.
